ELECTION OF PRINCIPALS. The Board then went into the election of principals for all the schools. Pre-ceding the election the Superintendent asked the Board to decide the question of principals for the colored schools.

Mr. J. Taylor Ellyson, chairman of the Board, said that he was in favor of restoring the principals to the positions from which they were removed by the former Board. This he would do both as a mat-ter of justice and wise policy—of justice because those men had been wrongfully dispossessed, and of wise policy because he believed that it was for the best inter-ests of the colored schools that it should HATHORN WATER flows from the Maxinum Mineral Fountain of Saratoga Springs, had been turned out by the Readjuster Board, and for putting white principals in charge of the colored schools.
